New York, Nov. 21.—News from Willemstad, Curacao, today, that Col. John Jacob Astor's yacht Nourmahal was safe at San Juan, P. R., on November 15, coming on the heels of last night's slarming report that a derelict sighted north of Cuba might be the Astor yacht, was a welcome rainbow after the storm of anxiety which his friends and relatives had experienced here since the West Indian region was cut off from communication by the hurricane two weeks ago.

Anxious for Details.

William A. Dobbin, private secretary to Colonel Astor, who was at his office up to a late hour last night, making every effort to communicate with Porto Rico and the Barbadoss, was greatly relieved with the receipt of the Willemstad despatch today, but was, nevertheless, anxious for details,

The News Passed Along. The news was at once passed along to Douglas Robinson and Nicholas Biddle, trustees of the Astor estate, and Mr. Biddle promptly filed messages with the wireless and cable companies to Mrs. Astor, who sailed for Europe on Wednesday on the Lusitania, soon after obtaining a decree of divorce. At the time of her departure the anxiety over Colonel Astor and their son, Vincent, had just begun to develop seriously, but Mrs. Astor was considerably upset, especially concernconsiderably upset, especially concerning her son. Today's wireless messages informing her of his safety may make reach the Lusitania before she docks, but if this falls Mrs. Astor will find a full

Dear Wife: I am still living, although it is now 5 o'clock Sunday morning, and there is little hope, as the black damp is getting the best of us. There are 21 of us altogether here. Dear wife, do not grieve; we will meet again. God bless you; believe in him, He will take care of you. I guess we will meet in a better land. When you get over this let them know at home (Scotland). That is all, dear vife (sod bless you. (Signed) "Your/Loving Husband."

All the farewell letters were written ment is anxious that the world should at least believe that Castro is plotting is needed than the recent publication in El Universal, the semi-official organ, of the following telegram from General V. Marquez Bustillos, governor of the state of Trujillo:

"L have just learned of the criminal Castro conspiracy. The government and people of Trujillo will know how to reach the height of their duty and deciare their affectionate adhesion to General Gomez. I am on guard and decided, in my intention to support our worthy chief in every way."

Either a serious condition of affairs does exist in Venezuela, due to steps being taken by the overthrown dictator to wreak vengeance on President Gomez, even if his chances to recapture the presidency are slim, or there is an object which inspires the government to make it appear that Castro is busy conspiring with his followers.

Willemstad Curacao, Nov. 21.—The report here is that ex-President Castro of Venezuela has sailed for Spain to confer with Senor Castro relative to his business affairs. his business affairs. ATTEMPT TO POISON AUSTRIAN MILITARY OFFICERS Received Through the Mails Sample Boxes of Pills. Vienns, Nov. 21.—An ext nordinary attempt at wholesale poisuring of military officers here has caused a sensation. A large number of officers, just promoted to be captains in the general staff, have received through the mails sample boxes of pills. These were accompanied by a circular regommending them for nervous debility. One of the officers. Captain Mader, took some of the plus and died almost immediately. An autopsy revealed the presence of cyanide of potassium and that his death was caused by that polson.

HUNTING TRIP ACCIDENT.

Franklin, Pa., Nov. 21—"Accident, slipped and—" was the contents of a note found tonight in a dense thicket beside the body of I. B. Boriand, aged 50 years, former county treasurer and a prominent politician, who has been missing from home since Priday. A wound in the left leg caused Borland to bleed to death, according to the coroner. The accident was the result of a hunting trip.

It was evident that Borland began to write the note, but fell exhausted before he could finish it.

FOUR WEEKS OF LAVA FLOW. Four Craters of Teneriffe Throwing

Teneriffe, Nov. 21.—There are now four craters throwing out incandescent matter, which frequently is accompanied by explosions. The flow of lava has covered nearly four miles and is still advancing. The nature of the ground prevents the damming up of the lava from the fertile land.
